

We are expanding and need three new teachers for the Kochs International Bilingual Program

We are looking for highly skilled, experienced teachers for our International Bilingual department from August 2020.

You are professional, committed to excellence and wish to be a part of our international department, which works in close collaboration with the teachers at our Danish department, and to be an integrated part of Kochs Skole (a Danish private school).

As homeroom teacher you will be an important and influential adult in the life of our pupils. You must be comfortable and willing to live up to that responsibility.

At Kochs Skole and Kochs International we have shared homeroom responsibility. It means you will work closely with your colleague to create a positive and inspiring learning environment.

Our teachers are part of the after school programme and you should expect to meet before and/or stay after class once or twice a week.

Please see the the description of each position below.

- You speak or are willing to learn Danish
- You can communicate effectively with parents and pupils from different educational and cultural backgrounds
- You thrive in an ever-changing environment

Even better:

- You are fluent or almost fluent in Danish
- You have experience with bilingual education
- You have experience with the Cambridge International Examinations (CIE) program

2) Faglig stærk dansklærer med flair for DSA

We are looking for a teacher to lead on the following subjects

- Danish in Year 1-2 (age 5-6) following Folkeskolens Fælles Mål
- Dansk som andetsprog
- Creative Studies
- Shared homeroom teacher in Year 1-2

Our requirements:

- You are a native level Danish speaker
- You are comfortable communicating in English
- You can communicate effectively with parents and pupils from different educational and cultural backgrounds
- You thrive in an ever-changing environment whilst we build our International department

Even better:

- You have experience with bilingual education
- You have experience with dansk som andetsprog

3) Upper secondary Mathematics and Science Teacher

We are looking for a teacher to lead on the following subjects

- Mathematics and Science at the upper secondary level following the Cambridge International Curriculum
- Homeroom teacher in either Year 8-9 or Year 10-11 where you will help our oldest pupils developed the necessary skills socially and academically to succeed in their life after leaving Kochs International

Our requirements:

- You are a native level English speaker
- You speak, or are willing to learn, Danish
- You can communicate effectively with parents and pupils from different educational and cultural background
- You thrive in an ever-changing environment

Even better:

- You are fluent or almost fluent in Danish
- You have experience with bilingual education
- You have experience with the Cambridge International Examinations (CIE) program and the IGCSEs (or GCSEs) exams

More about your place of work

Kochs School is one of the oldest private schools in Denmark. We celebrated our 150th anniversary in the summer of 2016. With a total of 580 Danish pupils, Kochs School is also amongst the largest private schools in Aarhus. With age comes strong traditions and values which will be continued in the international department and with size comes stability and the ability to provide a world class education.

We want the international department to be an integrated part of Kochs Skole, so you are expected to work closely with your Danish colleagues and to participate in the Danish traditions.

The international department started in August 2017 so you will be joining a developing department where we are still working together in forming our school
